Downtown State College Rotary Club Announces Release of 2008 Dinner and Entertainment Books

Fundraiser Benefits Local Non-profits

STATE COLLEGE, PA – The Downtown State College Rotary Club announces that its 2008 Dinner and Entertainment Book is now available for purchase. This year's book contains two-for-one vouchers from 57 establishments in the State College area, including 40 from restaurants and 17 from entertainment venues. The books cost $20 each, and most vouchers are valid throughout 2008. Proceeds from the book benefit the State College Area Food Bank, the State College YMCA, high school scholarship funds, and other Rotary projects.

Dinner and Entertainment books are available for purchase from State College Rotary members. They can also be purchased on site at the following locations:

- Moyer Jewelers (Moyer Jewelers, 100 E College Ave, State College, 237-7972);
- Central Area Transportation Authority/CATA Main Office (2801 West Whitehall Road, State College);
- Sepich Eye Care (Oakwood Centre, Suite 3000, 100 Oakwood Avenue, State College, 272-0262);
- Pure Weight Loss Center (540 Westerly Parkway, State College);
- Mary Kay Cosmetics Office of Carol Walsh (238-7444); and
- DOTY & HENCH (100 Radnor Road, State College, 16801).

The two-for-one offers provide an excellent opportunity to introduce friends and family to the area's wonderful dining and entertainment facilities, and the fundraiser raises thousands of dollars each year for worthy local causes.
